

Married 50 Years

MR. AND MRS. JOHN MAUTTE

The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. John Mautte of 5 Beacon street, Highwood, was celebrated this afternoon and evening at the home of their son, Louis G. Mauttee, 312 Shelton avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Mautte are an exceptionally young couple and well preserved to have had such a long married life. Mr. Mautte being born Sept. 18, 1847, and Mrs. Mautte who was Elizabeth Glinder, was born in 1851.

Their large family of children and their many friends gathered to extend congratulations upon this occasion and a happy time for the couple resulted.

Mr. Mautte has a long record as a Civil war veteran, fighting thru practically the whole war.

fore him fought in the Mexican war. John Mautte, a son of the honored couple fought in the Spanish war, and a granddaughter is now serving the United States government in the capacity of nurse at Newport. This same granddaughter, Miss Viola Visel, served considerable time as nurse for the allied soldiers in the present European war.

Over 150 guests attended the celebration, including ten of their eleven children and all of their 22 grandchildren. All their children are married except one.

The house was prettily decorated with daffodils and palms and the honored couple received the guests from under a large palm. Many gifts of gold and other articles were received.